

Vodafone adds a new smartphone to its portfolio and reduces prices by up to CZK 1,600 in December

Prague, November 30, 2007: Vodafone's portfolio of phones is expanding this December with the Nokia E51. Prices in the current portfolio are being reduced by up to CZK 1,600.

Nokia E51 – this handset with a metallic finish supports the Business Email Plus service, WiFi, WAP, GPRS, and Bluetooth. It features a 2 Mpix camera, an FM radio, and MP3 player. The standard price of this phone is CZK 7,977 including VAT; with the Loaded 700 tariff it is available for CZK 5,577 including VAT.

PRICE REDUCTIONS IN THE CURRENT PORTFOLIO

The biggest price reductions are for the following handsets:

- Nokia E65 CZK 8,977 including VAT with a prepaid card (a CZK 1,000 price reduction), with the Loaded 350 tariff it is available for CZK 6,977 including VAT (a CZK 1,600 price reduction)
- Nokia 6070 CZK 577 including VAT with the Loaded 350 tariff (a CZK 400 price reduction). It has thus become the most affordable phone featuring a camera in the portfolio

The HTC P3300 is now available without the GPS accessory and can thus be purchased for a considerably discounted price. With a prepaid card it costs CZK 11,577 including VAT (a CZK 4,400 price reduction), with the Loaded 350 tariff it is available for CZK 9,977 including VAT (a CZK 4,000 price reduction). The GPS accessory can be purchased for CZK 2,707 including VAT (the price includes TomTom navigation maps, a car storage unit, and a car charger).
